Ike Wants Full Discussion Of All Mideast Problems At General Assembly Meeting

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower said today the United States wants to discuss the whole sweep of Mideast problems and their causes at the proposed special session of the United Nations General Assembly.

The President told a news conference it would not be practical to restrict debate to just the problems of Lebanon.

In reply to a question, Eisenhower said he has no present plans to attend the extraordinary U.N. meeting.

But he added that he would attend if he should find it necessary or desirable.

It was Eisenhower's first news conference since July 2 — almost two weeks before U.S. troops moved into Lebanon, and most of the questions concerned the Mideast crisis.

Other Matters

Among specific matters he touched on:

WILEY LABELS CIVIL WAR AS 1ST MODERN WAR

More than 70 Civil War "buffs" ranging in age from 16 to 66 heard Prof. Bell I. Wiley, of the history department of Emory University, Atlanta, Ga., describe the conflict as the last of the "old-fashioned" and the first of the modern wars in his talk Tuesday evening at the week-long session of the "Civil War Study Group" assembled at Gettysburg College.

Wiley said it was an old-fashioned war in the sense that it was, in some respects, a polite war as indicated "in the borrowing of shovels from one side to the other to bury the dead; in the joining of both sides in a song-fest during lulls in the fighting, or in blackberrying together of both blue and gray forces."

"It was the first of the modern wars as indicated by the really first tactical use of the railroad and telegraph. It was the first war in which a battleship was sunk by a submarine, and the first in which a soldier was killed by machine-gun fire. There was the first use of rockets, landmines, observation balloons and flame-throwers. Even the consideration of germ warfare was discussed, in this case yellow fever."

Modern America Emerged

Wiley observed that Modern America emerged from the Civil War. Through the impetus of increased industrial power, he said, technical progress speeded the United States on its way to international leadership.

Before his speech Wiley expressed the feelings of the National Civil War Centennial Commission of which he is a member. He said that the group was interested in a "commemorative" event rather than one of "celebration" in memorializing the 100th anniversary of the war and expressed the hope that out of the centennial would come much new evidence to clarify the materials of the war.

Among the projects of the commission, Wiley said, are the publication of a magazine "100 Years After," the preparation of Sunday supplements, advisory capacity to battle re-enactments, and a documentary film and a mobile museum, a "Civil War version of the Freedom Train."

Tuesday's first speaker was Gen. E. J. Stackpole. In the afternoon Dr. Frederick Tilberg took the group on a tour of the battlefield.

This evening Professor Wiley will speak on "Johnny Reb And Billy Yank." Thursday his topic will be "Dear Folks: Home Letters Of Johnny Reb And Billy Yank." On Thursday also the group will tour Gettysburg locations associated with Lincoln and on Friday the group will visit Antietam.

Ancient Coins Are Shown In Ardentsville

A collection of coins ranging from the shekel, a unit of payment pre-dating coin minting, through Athenian silver coins, Biblical coins and Roman pieces, will be shown daily at the National Bank of Ardentsville from 8:30 a.m. until 3 p.m. On Saturday the exhibit will be on display from 8:30 a.m. to 12 noon and from 7 to 8 p.m.

Shown through the courtesy of the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia, the collection includes the Roman tribute penny, the widow's mite, coins similar to the 30 pieces of silver for which Judas was induced to betray Christ, gold, silver and bronze pieces. Most of the coins in the display were issued by the powerful states around the Mediterranean Sea and range in date from 650 B.C. to 337 A.D.

All the coins are authentic and show the variety and art of the ancient mints.

1,100 LEARNED SWIMMING IN R. C. CLASSES

The most extensive "learn to swim" program ever conducted by the Adams County chapter of the Red Cross closed Monday after giving instruction to more than 1,100 children and adults since classes opened June 16.

Chapter Chairman George W. Naugle said that the response to the special appeal for funds for the program has been "most generous" and has brought in donations totaling $401. The most recent check was a $25 gift from the Gettysburg Lions Club. He said contributions received to date have come within less than $100 of covering the chapter's expenses in the program.

He said that additional donations are expected from some organizations and individuals. "Considerable expense is involved in this program, one of our important public service activities," Mr. Naugle said. "While many of the assistant instructors have donated their services, the size of the water safety program has made it necessary for us to appeal for special gifts to finance the classes."

Classes were held during June and July at the Battlefield swimming pool, the Gettysburg College pool and Crouse's pool at Littlestown with Red Cross-trained and certified instructors in charge.

This list of persons who successfully passed the various water safety courses was announced:

BEN FRANKLIN DOCUMENTS IN LOCAL VAULTS

The Adams County Commissioners this morning were reminded that Benjamin Franklin once had charge of granting land in Adams County. Clerk Crosby N. Hartzell, engaged in a general cleaning of the vaults at the courthouse, showed the commissioners two grants discovered among the old papers. Both were dated December 7, 1785, and are to John Reed of "Tyronne Twp., York County."

The documents are signed by "B. Franklin, Pres'd't."

The papers are warrants to John Lukens, Esq., surveyor general for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, directing him to "execute the warrant" granting in the one case 100 acres and in the other 150 acres of land in Tyronne Twp. to John Reed.

Lukens then forwarded the warrants to Moses McClean, a deputy surveyor for this area, to carry out the actual survey of the land. The warrant states that "Whereas John Reed of the county of (blank) hath requested to take up 150 acres (100 on the other warrant) of land including improvements, provided the land is not within the last purchase made of the Indians, for which he agrees to pay immediately into the office of the record general for the use of the state at the rate of ten pounds per 100 acres," the surveyor general is directed to execute the grant.

The paper is signed "In witness whereof his excellency, Ben. Franklin, Esq. president of the Supreme Executive Council had hereunto set his hand and caused the less seal of the said commonwealth to be affixed."

The 150-acre warrant to Reed is "adjoining James Reed, James Galaher, James Maxwell, Andrew Hearsey and Arthur Orr Junior. The other warrant is for land adjoining "John Reed, Adam Cline John Dadds and Arthur Orr Junior."

Hoffa Admits Big Gambling Gains; Argues With Probers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Teamsters boss James R. Hoffa told Senate investigators today he had $80,322 of "gambling gains" in the 1948-56 period. He denied that income so listed on tax returns included payoffs in labor disputes.

Hoffa told the Senate Rackets Investigating Committee he couldn't spell out details of the gambling gains but that Owen (Bert) Brennan, his pal and a Teamsters vice president, could.

Brennan, called to the witness chair, invoked the Fifth Amendment. He said his income taxes are under investigation and he would not be a witness against himself.

Hoffa denied specifically that he got a $17,500 payoff, or any part of that sum, to prevent a Detroit laundry industry strike in 1949.

A group of laundry operators testified Tuesday they put up the money. There was testimony it was turned over to a labor counselor, now dead.

The stocky Hoffa, natty in a gray suit, turned to the attack at every opportunity in his second day on the witness stand.

His attorney, Edward Bennett Williams, started the proceedings with a detailed accusation against the committee that Hoffa was being subjected to what he called legislative trial.

OFFICIALS SET DATES FOR VOTER REGISTRATIONS

The Adams County Commissioners at their meeting this morning at the courthouse met with Adams County Republican Chairman H. Earl Pitzer, Aspers, and Democratic Chairman Fred G. Klunk, New Oxford, to set up a schedule for traveling registrars to visit various communities of the county during the next several weeks to permit unregistered persons to sign as voters.

General agreement showed the registrars will visit the communities between August 18 and September 6. There was general agreement also that the court house will remain open two Friday nights, September 5 and 12, to permit registration there.

Otherwise the chairman, commissioners and clerks were engaged in a study of the county maps and prior registration figures to determine the best possible sites for the registrars to sit.

Discuss Saturday Date

There was some discussion whether the special registrations should be held on Saturday nights with most in agreement both ways — that Saturday night should be the easiest for persons to visit the registration centers and that probably most people wouldn't go register on Saturday nights.

There was also a lengthy discussion on whether registrars would sit in both McSherrystown and Conewago Twp. with Chairman Klunk holding that "Conewago is a big township and growing all the time."

It was indicated toward the close of this morning's meeting that final decision on the sites for the traveling registrars will be decided this afternoon.

Other business this morning included the signing of the contract with the Gettysburg Construction Co. for construction of the Gitt's Mill bridge near New Oxford, for which the construction was the low bidder when bids were opened last week.

Church Will Raze

E. Middle Property

The Building committee of St. James Lutheran Church at meeting Tuesday evening awarded to Thomas Carr, Gettysburg, the contract for removing buildings from a property recently acquired by the church at 108 E. Middle St.

The property formerly was owned by George Topper and is improved with a two-story dwelling and several smaller buildings. The work is to be done by November 1. Carr will remove the building for the salvage materials.

A fire that "just exploded through the double barn" caused an estimated "$20,000 to $30,000 or more" damage at the Robert McNair farm along the Emmitsburg Rd. late this morning.

Mrs. McNair said three men working on the farm had been at lunch at the house, "and everything was all right when they came in. As they walked out the door after eating about 11:30 o'clock, they saw a thin trail of smoke coming from the barn bridge. They called to me to call the fire company and just then the barn seemed to explode into flame."

The three men, Robert McNair, a cousin; Jack Glacken and James Painter, rushed to the barn and released about 30 head of fattening steers.

Five Companies Respond

At 1 o'clock this afternoon there was still a question of whether two of the steers may have remained in the barn and were destroyed as the structure was consumed by the flames.

The three men removed a horse and two colts from a horse shed adjoining the barn.

The shed was partially destroyed by fire before five fire companies could arrive and start the fight to prevent the blaze from spreading to other smaller farm buildings around the big double McNair barn from which extended a number of horse stables which also burned. A bull stall shed also was destroyed by the flames.

Tons Of Hay Lost

Firemen from Emmitsburg, Barlow, Greenmount, Gettysburg and Fairfield responded to the alarm. Gettysburg was called at 11:45 o'clock.

Four men working at the farm, McNair, Glacken, Painter and George Livingston, had gone to the McNair house to eat at about 11 o'clock. At that time Livingston drove to his home. His car had been parked near the barn, but he had noticed nothing amiss when he entered his car to drive away.

The blaze a half hour later destroyed "tons of hay" with the double barn nearly filled with the first cuttings of hay and first and second cuttings of alfalfa. The four workmen had planned to place hay from approximately 30 acres in the barn this afternoon.

The McNair farm is located about seven miles south of here on the east side of the Emmitsburg Rd.

The road into the fair grove is being paved as part of a general improvement program this year.

SARGE QUILTS TALK CONTEST AT 88.37 HOURS

Johnson, 32, was the second long-winded sergeant to leave the contest at the insistence of a doctor. The other talked for 60 hours.

ADAMS — A reporter asked that the President justify, as the reporter put it, keeping Sherman Adams on the job as his chief aide.

Eisenhower replied he had made a statement on that matter some weeks ago, and would have nothing more to say on the subject.

In his earlier statement, the President said Adams was imprudent in his relations with Boston industrialist Bernard Goldfine, but "I need him" on the job in the White House.

Health Question
HEALTH — Edward T. Pollard of the Washington Post called Eisenhower's attention to speculation in English newspapers that the President's health is not good.

Pollard told Eisenhower, "You look pretty good to me," and asked how he was feeling.

The President smiled and thanked Pollard. He said the writers of the stories had not consulted him or his doctors.

Eisenhower said there seems to have been a more constant stream of major problems confronting him in the last six months than was the case earlier. But he said he doesn't feel the burden is really great, and his doctors say he is in good shape.

John L. Clough, northeastern representative of the American Farm Bureau Federation, Washington, D. C., outlined farm legislation before Congress and told the farmers to "combat allotments for corn and wheat," declaring that "if the allotment program continues over many more years, you will find yourself like some of the southern farmers who receive allotments as low as three-quarters of an acre for some crops."

Reports were presented by Fremont Kuntz on policy development of the Adams County Farmers Association and Paul Lerew, a director of the Pennsylvania Farmers Association, who spoke on the work of that group.

Mrs. Robert Johnson, who is blind, spoke on the blind and played several selections on the accordion. President George W. Stock presided. Mrs. Calvin T. Bream, Fairfield, was chairman of the program committee.

SWIMS TO FLEE DEATH BY BOAT

SAN PEDRO, Calif. (AP) — A Hollywood man swam three miles Tuesday night, yelling and praying for help, while his circling motorboat threatened to cut him to bits.

Police said Richard W. Taylor, 28, related that shortly after 8 p.m. he left here alone in his speedboat for the 21-mile run to Santa Catalina Island. Three miles out a heavy swell pitched him into the sea.

The pilotless craft began circling him. Several times he dived to avoid its churning propeller.

His cries and the motorboat's whine were heard. Two Coast Guard cutters sped to the scene. One took the motorboat in tow as it ran out of gas.

Taylor had swum to within 100 yards of the shore. A lifeguard brought him ashore, unconscious. He was revived and taken home.

Try Compromise Farm Bill Move

WASHINGTON (AP) — Disorganized House farm forces rallied for an effort to ram a compromise farm bill through the House today.

It would permit cutting price support levels on cotton, corn and rice but allow planting of more cotton and make changes in programs for the others.

The bill was scheduled for a showdown vote postponed from Monday, when it came to the floor under take-it-or-leave-it procedure requiring a two-thirds vote for passage.

If that fails the bill could be brought up later under more liberal voting procedure, but House leaders have said that is unlikely. They urged passage of the bill so a Senate-House conference can work out final terms.

Dr. Welsh Advocates Medical Stockpiles

HARRISBURG (AP) — A State Health Department official says every municipality in Pennsylvania should stockpile enough essential medical supplies to care for its own immediate needs in case of a disaster.

Dr. Arthur B. Welsh, medical coordinator for the division of civil defense, said that supplies now stored in various places around the state would not be sufficient to cope with a big emergency such as an enemy attack.

"The tendency of most borough and township officials is to feel that they'll be able to get these things somewhere else if the need arises," he said.

"But after an enemy attack, radioactive fallout may prevent transporting essential supplies for two weeks or more."

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Security National Bank of Long Island, N. Y., Tuesday asked U. S. District Court for permission to subpoena Pittsburgh financier Earl Belle and Mitchell Ostwind by registered mail.

COMMITTEE HAS STALLED BILL

WASHINGTON (AP) — A public works bill earmarking $975,000 for the proposed Kettle Creek and Curwensville, Pa., dams was still being held up today in a House-Senate conference committee.

The measure, making appropriations for nationwide flood and navigation projects, went to the committee July 15 because versions passed by the two houses differed on some projects. Numerous closed meetings have been held since then without reaching an agreement.

The Kettle Creek project, listed in the appropriations bill for the first time, would receive $800,000 of this $350,000 would be for planning and $450,000 for construction.

The Curwensville project would receive $175,000 for planning. Local groups have pressed for congressional approval of the Kettle Creek project as a means of providing flood control and stimulating employment in such distressed areas as Renovo, Pa.

Kettle Creek is part of a four-dam project to control the amount of water entering the West Branch of the Susquehanna River. The first dam was undertaken by the state.

WELFARE EYES LARGER GRANTS

HARRISBURG (AP) — The Public Welfare Department today studied a proposal to greatly increase state payments to counties for care of dependent, neglected and delinquent children.

The proposal also called for the abandonment of direct legislative grants to the child care institutions and recommended that state payments be made on the basis of institutional standards.

The recommendations were contained in a report on a recent study made for the department by the government consulting service of the University of Pennsylvania. The report was presented to department officials in a meeting Tuesday with representatives of eight institutions.

The report said the new system would provide incentives for institutions to meet or better minimum standards. Payments would be made only to institutions meeting minimum standards and higher payments would be made to institutions with conditions better than the minimum.

Will Not Punish Training Sergeant

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP) — A sergeant who ordered trainees to go 10 pushups on a hot asphalt pavement faces no disciplinary action by the Army.

Sgt. Roy C. Cobb of Atlanta ordered the pushups as a disciplinary measure July 26 when the recruits became unruly during a drill. Thirty-one suffered burned hands. Two of them were hospitalized, but suffered no permanent injury.

Brig. Gen. William C. Bullock, commandant at nearby Ft. Chaffee, said Cobb ordered the pushups without malicious intent and did pushups himself.

NEW YORK (AP) — There's a good chance that next year's battle for a steel wage hike will end in a bitter strike, the Iron Age, national metalworking weekly, said today.

The current furor in Washington over steel price boosts "may have a good long-run effect" from the viewpoint of steel management, Iron Age asserted.

MURPHY TALKS WITH EGYPTIANS

CAIRO (AP) — Robert Murphy, President Eisenhower's special envoy to the Middle East, today began talks with officials of the United Arab Republic.

Murphy, U.S. deputy undersecretary of state, and Ambassador Raymond Hare met first with Aly Sabry, President Nasser's chief political adviser. Nasser and Foreign Minister Mahmoud Fawzy were expected to join the talks after lunch.

The Egyptians planned to concentrate on the Western troop landings in Lebanon and Jordan, the current situation in Iraq and the U.S. attitude toward Nasser and his tactics in promoting militant Arab nationalism.

The Egyptians were certain to object in strong terms to U.S. charges that Nasser long has been committing indirect aggression to undermine independent Arab governments through propaganda and subversion.

Tear Gas Spreads Through Restaurant

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Fumes similar to tear gas spread through the dining room of Weinstein's Restaurant in Pittsburgh's Squirrel Hill section Tuesday night.

Policemen said the fumes came from a chemical saturated paste that was glued on a light bulb in a men's room on the second floor. Police said the sticky substance may have been planted in the rest room as a prank. They turned it over to the city's bomb and arson squad for examination.

About 200 customers were in the restaurant. Some left but others remained and business continued. Policemen and firemen put on gas masks to enter the rest room.

SECRET TRIAL IS GRANTED IN INVENTOR'S SUIT

NEW YORK (AP)—The inventor of a top-secret device has won the right to trial behind closed doors of his suit against the government for compensation.

The decision was handed down Tuesday by the U.S. Court of Appeals.

Dr. Otto Halpern, a Vienna-born physicist, had been unable to come to terms with the government for a device he invented in 1941.

Involves Eluding Radar
So secret is the device that its only description disclosed by the Navy is that it "deals with a manner and means whereby an object may escape observation and detection by radar."

Last September Halpern filed suit for "hundreds of thousands of dollars" against the government for use of the device.

Halpern's lawyers said he was offered less than $50,000 for outright acquisition of the device. The offer was rejected.

In rejecting the suit a federal judge cited the Invention Secrecy Act of 1951, which provides that no patent can be given for secret military devices until potential enemies of the United States have the secret.

Denied Patent
Judge David N. Edelstein contended the Secrecy Act precluded any action until declassification of the invention.

In Tuesday's precedent-setting decision, the appeals court ruled Halpern's suit might be tried in camera (in private) before a single judge "if in the judgment of the District Court such a trial can be carried out without substantial risk that secret information will be publicly divulged."

Halpern was denied a patent in 1945 on the grounds one would make his secret public.

M'DONALD RAPS ATTEMPTS MADE TO BUILD PANIC

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP)—David J. McDonald, president of the big United Steelworkers Union, charged today that deliberate, personal attacks have been made on him from "curious sources" outside the union and said they were designed to panic members and infer the union is falling apart.

McDonald loosed the blast before the annual conference of USW Dist. 13 at its opening session.

The union leader did not mention by name Fortune Magazine which last week claimed a majority of the union's International Executive Board has turned against him and predicted rising opposition would force him to resign.

Cites Plan
McDonald laid alleged attacks against him to "a well-designed plan" by the National Assn. of Manufacturers, the U. S. Chamber of Commerce and various other organizations "to tear the workers away from the leaders and build enmity and hatred in the minds of people."

Asserting that personal attacks could be shrugged off, McDonald said: "But when these attacks are aimed—by deliberate design, I am certain—to panic our members and create an impression with the general public that our union is coming apart at the seams, then I reach the boiling point."

And if you steelworkers are willing to take this sort of thing lying down, then a lifelong admiration I have had for the rugged fighting men of steel is tempered with just a little disillusionment. "Because, whether you realize it or not, you are right in the middle of a vicious attack that may very well tear down the things you have built and held dear for almost a quarter of a century."

Citing next year's negotiations with the basic steel industry on a new contract, McDonald told his audience:

May Have Fight
"Do you realize that this time next year all of us may be in a fight for our lives as a union? There is not the least doubt in my mind that many of the shafts being thrown at us are meant simply to set the stage for the crucial negotiations we will have with steel next summer."

McDonald said that at present "I believe we could count on the steelworkers to rally to the union and cope with any emergency. But with another year of bickering, back-biting, sniping, disunity and downright destructiveness, I would have to fear for the future."

Boater Killed By Propeller
RIVERSIDE, N. J. (AP)—A vacationing Philadelphian was killed Tuesday when he was thrown from an outboard motor boat and it ran over him.

The victim, Edward Nowak, 51, of Philadelphia, was towing a water skier at the Dredge Harbor yacht basin on the Delaware River south of here.

Police said the boat lurched when Nowak opened the throttle to pick up speed. He was thrown into the water, the boat circled around him and the propeller blades cut him in the groin.

Nowak, a machinist at the Frankford Arsenal in Philadelphia, started his vacation Monday.

PRESIDENT SAYS BUSINESS MUST CURB INCREASES

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today American business is going to have to curb price increases or consumers are going to rebel.

The President coupled this remark at a news conference with an equally emphatic declaration that labor, too, must use restraint about wage increases.

Eisenhower gave his views when asked if, in the light of recent steel price increases, his administration has any plan to combat inflation.

Avoids Direct Answer
He did not answer the question directly but said no one should be more concerned about inflation than the working man whose income, he said, steadily lags behind rising costs of living.

Eisenhower said both labor and business must use restraint if this country is to get along without artificial controls.

He said if prices continue to rise the time will come when the American consumer will rebel in a big way and the result will be something the country does not want.

EXPECT EARLY MEETING OF U. N. ASSEMBLY

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The U. N. Security Council is expected to approve quickly the calling of an emergency U. N. Assembly meeting to the Middle East.

The 11-nation Council will meet Thursday to consider rival U. S. and Soviet proposals for an emergency session of the full 81-nation Assembly. It could be held way within a day or two, depending on when the Council acts.

U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge said the United States welcomed a General Assembly meeting "now that the Soviets have rejected our offer of a high-level meeting of the Security Council."

Lodge noted that a U. S. resolution asking an emergency Assembly meeting has priority in the Council.

"We intend to press it to a vote at the earliest possible moment when the Council convenes," he said.

The U. S. resolution asks the emergency Assembly meeting to deal with appropriate recommendations concerning a complaint by Lebanon against President Nasser's United Arab Republic. The U. A. R. was charged with intervening in Lebanon's internal affairs.

SOLH'S CABINET WANTS TO QUIT
BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—Premier Sami Solh's Cabinet has placed its resignation in the hands of President Camille Chamoun.

But Chamoun, it was reported today, is unwilling to accept the resignation until a new Cabinet is ready to take over. Lebanese politicians were dicker over the composition of a new caretaker government which would run the country until Sept. 24 when President-elect Gen. Fuad Shehab is due to take over.

Adel Osserian, speaker of Parliament, was frequently mentioned by the politicians as the likely new premier.

Osserian was a go-between in the compromise choice of Shehab. Because of this role, various factions might agree to his selection as an interim premier.

The opposition National Front, which launched the rebellion that began May 10, is showing little interest, but still is insisting on the immediate resignation of Ghamoun.

Except for one serious bomb explosion, the Lebanese capital has been calm since Shehab's election.

Stocks Achieve Mild Rally Today

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market tried hard to resume a summer rally today but achieved only partial success with prices slightly higher in early afternoon.

Oils were favorites again with gains from fractions to more than a point. Turnover was moderate. There were two spurts when the market.

President Eisenhower told his news conference business is going to have to go slow on price increases or consumers are going to rebel. His remarks appeared to have little impact on the market.

There was no special news to account for the continued strength in oils. Some brokers said these stocks were considered good inflation hedges.

Two Team Up
But he noted that Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas and Sen. William F. Knowland of California, the Senate's Democratic and Republican leaders, teamed up to get committee approval of the increase.

Dworshak called that "a difficult combination to beat."

Even with the increase, the bill falls 432 million dollars below what the President originally asked, and 157½ million less than Congress itself approved in a previous authorization bill.

Knowland told the committee the President realized that he couldn't anticipate any more, and said the administration could live with the amount voted.

Smith Urges Study Of Illegitimacy Problem
HARRISBURG (AP)—Aud. Gen. Charles C. Smith said today the state's first responsibility is to see that public assistance is administered "in a way that encourages self respect, self dependency and a desire to be a good and useful citizen."

In a letter to Harry Shapiro, public welfare secretary, Smith urged that a study be made of the entire problem of illegitimacy.

He called attention to the Public Assistance Appropriation Act which provides that half of one per cent of the funds may be used at the governor's will for such studies.

The fund came under discussion recently when the district attorney of Philadelphia criticized the method of paying public assistance to unwed mothers.

Butcher Kills Man In TV Show Dispute
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A butcher was accused today of killing a man with a boning knife during a dispute over what television show to watch.

Police said the butcher, Arthur McDaniels, 36, slashed Curt Brown, 35, shortly after midnight. The men were watching television in a third-floor apartment with Robert Buchanan, 50, owner of the receiver.

FAMILY IS SAFE AFTER CRASHING IN MOUNTAINS

WATSON LAKE, Yukon Territory (AP)—A California family of three who crash-landed their small plane in the mountainous southern Yukon have been rescued after surviving for seven days on grouse, fish and leaves.

Pilot E. L. Gregg of Firebaugh, Calif., his wife and their daughter attracted the attention of a search plane with a mirror as they stood beside their wrecked craft.

They were picked up by an Al Force helicopter Tuesday and brought to this Yukon town 700 miles north of Edmonton. They appeared in good health.

The Greggs, headed for an Alaska vacation, disappeared in their single-engine plane July 29 during a 335-mile flight along the Alaska Highway from Ft. Nelson, B. C., to Watson Lake.

Details Reported
Gregg told rescuers this story: They became lost and ran low on fuel. The plane's compass failed and Gregg decided to set down.

Although the plane somersaulted and landed upside down, the occupants scrambled out without a scratch.

Gregg couldn't find a road. He came across a trapper's cabin but there was no food in it.

The Greggs had sandwiches and coffee with them. They also had a cigarette lighter, fishing rod and .22-caliber pistol.

Gregg killed a grouse by flinging an ax at it. He shot another grouse. The family also ate leaves from rose bushes and ferns.

The weather was comfortable most of the week. There was no rain.

FOES OF MORE FOREIGN FUNDS ADMIT DEFEAT

WASHINGTON (AP)—Opponents of increased foreign aid spending all but conceded victory today to Senate leaders fighting to restore most of the funds cut by the House from a foreign aid money bill.

Two opponents suffered a strong setback Tuesday. The Senate Appropriations Committee approved $3,518,092,500 in foreign aid spending after restoring 400 million of the 597½ million chopped out by the House.

Sen. Henry Dworshak (R-Idaho) said attempts will be made to knock out the increases when the bill comes up for Senate debate next week.

The Swope's Aero chances for the Big League championship grew slimmer, Tuesday evening, when they failed to field a complete team and thus had to forfeit to the Exchange Club, 9-0, on the college diamond.

Schedule Hearing On New Wage Bill

HARRISBURG (AP)—The first of a series of public hearings on a new minimum wage order for women and minors employed in restaurants, hotels and motels will be held in Stroudsburg next week.

"The purpose of the hearings will be to aid the board in making recommendations to be used as a basis for a new minimum wage order for women and minors employed in these establishments," said William L. Batt Jr., secretary of labor and industry.

Batt said Tuesday that the wage board would hold hearings at Stroudsburg Aug. 14, Erie Aug. 20, Pittsburgh Aug. 22, and Philadelphia Aug. 26.

An earlier minimum wage order that would have become effective May 12 was thrown out by the Dauphin County Court for technical reasons.

Employers Watch Employees In Camp
INDIANTOWN GAP, Pa. (AP)—Representatives of 11 businesses today watched their employees train with the 28th Infantry Division, Pennsylvania National Guard.

The group toured the military installation and saw the citizen-soldiers practice range firing, tank training and unit tactics. The day ended with a retreat parade of the 110th Infantry, Washington, Pa.

A National Guard spokesman said the employers were shown a day of routine training to help them understand what their employees are doing during the two-week encampment.

DULLES WARNS OF WAR SIGNS

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles said today indirect aggression threatens another world war. "This time," he said, "with even more disastrous consequences."

World events now show "disturbing symptoms such as preceded and forecast World War II," Dulles said in a speech at a luncheon given for him by the American Chamber of Commerce in Brazil.

Dulles spoke to the American business community just before flying with Brazilian President Juscelino Kubitschek to Brasilia, the nation's capital under construction 600 miles northwest of Rio. It was the secretary's last stop on his 2½-day visit to Brazil. He was to fly back to Washington tonight.

Dulles and Kubitschek were reported near agreement that a summit conference of the presidents of the 21 American republics should be called to knit together the strained ties between the United States and its Latin neighbors.

Capture Alligator On Lam From Zoo
WACO, Tex. (AP)—Albert the Alligator, a bit snappish early in the morning, was recaptured today after more than three weeks on the lam from the Waco Zoo.

Zoo officials said the seven-foot gator apparently spent his days of freedom in and right around a culvert half a mile from the zoo.

Albert was sighted early today beside the road by an unidentified woman motorist. She called police. Albert was in three feet of water under a culvert.

The alligator was dragged out by the tail and zoo officials and five policemen subdued and returned him.

Today's Talk

RECOGNIZE YOUR OWN LUCK
We shall never understand luck very well until we recognize that it isn't something that is given away — "without money and without price."

Luck is something that you have to earn as you do your bread. I have never heard a person spoken of as lucky without smiling to myself. "And I have usually said to myself: 'Well, I am of the opinion that he is a worker.'"

For work is in reality the tree that bears the fruit of luck.

Don't waste your time bemoaning your luck. That's why you have none.

Luck, after all, is pretty fairly distributed in this workaday world. The luckiest man isn't the one who makes the most money or accumulates the greatest fame. Nothing like that. The lucky man is he who has discovered most about himself — and used that knowledge to the highest degree for the benefit of others.

I have a friend who seems to have the ability to make everybody love him. He is an inspiration to me. But, you see, I know the secret! He makes it his business to love other people. And now he is making much money — and he is famous, which is merely incidental. That's the way luck works.

Of course luck doesn't function all the time. Neither does the apple tree, as far as fruit is concerned. A man wouldn't amount to much with a sea of luck to swim in all the time.

The best idea is to forget luck altogether. Just go right on with what you have and do your work to the best of your ability.

Luck won't forget you. Luck likes people! Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Radiant Personality."

Just Folks

MY PLAN
When I wanted something I couldn't buy—

A suit of clothes or a Sunday tie. Or a new straw hat when the sun was high.

I used to feel sore about it.

I used to go round with a face drawn long

And vow that everything here was wrong;

And this was the theme of my dismal song:

I can't get along without it.

When I've been broke, which has oft occurred,

I never could utter a cheerful word;

I groused all day, which was most absurd.

And kicked up a fuss about it.

I thought what I wanted and couldn't get

Was reason enough to fume and fret.

So I fretted and fumed all day, and yet

I managed to do without it.

Now whenever I want what I cannot buy—

A suit of clothes or a Sunday tie. Or a new straw hat when the sun is high

I don't say a word about it.

I've found that my wants needn't interfere

With my daily fun on this hemisphere.

What I can't afford doesn't spoil my cheer;

I just get along without it.

COLEMAN WINS STEEPLECHASE AT BUDAPEST

By STERLING SLAPPEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
BUDAPEST (AP)—Horace Ashenfelter first taught Americans all steeplechasers aren't horses. Phil Coleman has taken it from there.

Coleman is a 27-year-old teacher from Champaign, Ill., who won the 3,000-meter steeplechase Tuesday against a group of very good Hungarians and Czechoslovakians in a track and field meet which ends tonight.

The victory was the most significant for an American distance runner since Ashenfelter looked over his shoulder during the 1952 Olympic steeplechase at Helsinki, saw a Russian closing in and then beat the Soviet runner in the Russians' favorite event.

Set American Mark
Until that unexpected victory many Americans thought steeplechasing was done only by horses at such race tracks at Belmont Park and Aintree, England.

Coleman's triumph along with the fine distance running by Bill Dellinger of Neal Bay, Wash., should do much toward making their events more popular at home.

Coleman's time over the water jump and heavy hurdles Tuesday was 8:43.4. In Warsaw last week he set an American record of 8:40.8. And in Moscow 10 days ago during the first meet of the American tour he ran the distance in 8:47.

Top American victories Tuesday were turned in by Glenn Davis of Columbus, Ohio, in the 400 meters with a 45.6 clocking and Earlene Brown, the muscular Los Angeles housewife. Mrs. Brown won the discus' throw with a toss of 156 feet, 7.89 in. She defeated Olympic champion Olga Fikotova, now the wife of American Olympic hammer throwing champion Harold Connolly of Boston.

BULLETS OPEN WITH BUCKNELL

Gettysburg College will open its 1958 football season with Bucknell on September 27 in the annual Rotary Bowl game at Hershey Stadium.

Drexel, after a lapse of several years, and Hofstra College, of Hempstead, N. Y., a newcomer, replace Western Maryland and Scranton. Gettysburg won nine games and Drexel one in the series between these two schools dating back to 1936.

Gettysburg will be playing in the upper bracket of the newly-formed Middle Atlantic Conference. Other conference teams are Bucknell, Delaware, Lafayette, Lehigh, Muhlenberg, Rutgers and Temple.

The 1958 schedule includes: Sept. 27, Bucknell at Hershey; Oct. 4, Lehigh at Gettysburg; Oct. 18, Albright at Reading; Oct. 25, Muhlenberg at Gettysburg; Nov. 1, Lafayette at Easton; Nov. 8, Hofstra at Gettysburg; Nov. 15, Temple at Philadelphia; Nov. 22, F. and M. at Lancaster.

News Items For Upper End

BENDERSVILLE FIREMEN USE NEW KITCHEN

Bendersville firemen will use their new kitchen for the first time this week when the firemen stage their annual carnival Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights.

During the carnival and during the annual solicitation now being held the firemen are hoping to secure enough money to pay for both the new kitchen — a matter of $3,000, and the new gas heating system installed in the firemen's hall this summer at a cost of about $2,500.

Both renovations help serve the community, with the firemen's building in Bendersville serving as a community center for activities ranging from meetings of clubs to a place for Sunday church services for Puerto Ricans.

Outgrew Old Facilities

The new gas heating system was installed when the former coal burning system "wore out" after three decades use last spring. Firemen at that time were faced with the choice of making extensive renovations to the old system or installing a brand new system with the hope that its continued use over the years would provide cheaper heating than renovation, and possible continued renovation from time to time of the old system. They chose the new.

The decision to install a new kitchen came as a result of experience of serving meals from the kitchen that had been in the former Fruitgrowers Association building for years. Finding that the requirements had outgrown the facilities, the firemen looked around the main auditorium in the building and decided that the stage located at one end of the structure could be removed, for it had little use in recent years. In addition, the firemen noted, if a stage was needed, there is an excellent one in the Bendersville elementary school that can be used for community activities.

Automatic Dishwasher

A little searching about also discovered there was some second hand kitchen equipment available at the present time from the former Arendtsville High School and elsewhere that could be had—not at a song, but very reasonably.

The former stage was removed and into that area went a bright and cheerful new kitchen with additional windows and fans providing for ventilation and a counter replacing the front of the stage.

A gas stove, steam tables, an electric potato masher—at a cost of $500—fluorescent lighting system, new sinks cupboards that extend entirely around two sides of the new kitchen were installed.

Into the former kitchen went an automatic dishwasher to help take care of that mountainous chore.

Special Attractions

And as a result the Bendersville firemen's hall now has kitchen facilities the equal of any in the area.

The new kitchen will be used for the first time during the forthcoming festival which begins Thursday night with Gary Eppley and the Cheerful Valley Gang providing the entertainment. Friday night the Fairfield High School Band will be the featured entertainment and Saturday night Bendersville High School's band will provide the music.

Each evening during the festival hot chicken and beef sandwiches, chicken corn soup, hog dogs and barbecue, pie, cake, ice cream and soft drinks will be on the menu.

Saturday afternoon the Ladies Auxiliary of the fire company will serve a baked ham supper family style. The baked ham supper serving will begin following the Adams County Firemen's Association parade starting at 4:30 o'clock and will continue to 8 o'clock Saturday evening.

To Host County Convention
The Bendersville firemen will have a busy week. In addition to their carnival they will be completing their solicitation and will be host to the Adams County Firemen's Association annual convention.

Duane Bretzman and Earl Sternor about three months ago headed a committee of firemen who distributed coin saving cards to the people in the Bendersville Fire Co. area. During the current period the firemen are collecting the cards, and those who may not be at home when firemen call are asked to return the cards to the fire company.

Parade Saturday

The coinsaver cards are a device hit upon by the Bendersville firemen several years ago as a means to help make the annual solicitation as "painless as possible" to the people of their area. The cards are distributed in advance and most people in the area put in coins from time to time and as a result when it is time to make the donation, the money is ready to go.

The 36th annual Adams County Firemen's Convention will be held at Bendersville Saturday, with the auxiliary to the Bendersville firemen providing the noon meal—a roast beef platter lunch—during the convention session which will close with the annual parade.

This Stork Just Could Not Wait

PITTSBURGH (AP)—On Tuesday the stork dropped a hint to Mrs. James R. Alexander of Mars, Pa.

Ambulance driver Adrian Walters came to the expectant mother's aid. But the baby arrived as the ambulance was passing the North Hills section, still several miles from the hospital.

A few miles later, the ambulance, conked out.

Another ambulance was called. En route it developed motor trouble but managed to get going again.

Both the mother and the baby—who was premature and weighed only three pounds—were doing fine.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

Bendersville firemen this week put the finishing touches to a new kitchen constructed in the firemen's hall at Bendersville in preparation for use of the kitchen during the firemen's carnival there Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Fire Chief L. J. Orner is shown working on a new potato masher purchased for the new kitchen. (Times photo)

James MARLOW Reports

The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States and the Soviet Union both look clumsy in their almost fantastic exchange of proposals for a summit meeting which now is dead.

Premier Khrushchev scored an early propaganda victory by proposing the meeting but then— from what seemed sheer impulse rather than shrewdness—got himself into a box from which he finally escaped by calling the whole thing off.

The Eisenhower administration, reluctant about such a meeting at all, got pressured into agreeing to one. It finally suggested the kind of get-together that almost certainly would have turned into a name-calling, shouting match.

Two-Edged Jump

If the administration decided to agree but only under conditions it felt Khrushchev couldn't or wouldn't accept, it succeeded. The final Soviet refusal to meet on American terms caused no unhappiness among key officials here.

Khrushchev got a two-edged propaganda jump: by proposing the meeting and at the same time by accusing the United States and Britain of aggression in sending their troops into Lebanon and Jordan.

It was hardly the way to start toward a peaceful meeting. He proposed the United States, the Soviet Union, Britain, France and India meet outside the United Nations and, if they reached agreements, make recommendations to the U.N.

Khrushchev In Hurry

(He wasn't alone in this idea. French Premier de Gaulle didn't want a summit meeting in the U.N. either.)

President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles had very little stomach for the Khrushchev proposal. Ever since last December they had opposed a summit meeting without thorough preparation and agreement on what would be discussed.

Khrushchev wanted a meeting in a hurry. British Prime Minister Macmillan agreed but suggested it be held in the U.N. Security Council. Eisenhower and Dulles could either agree or break with Britain. Under this pressure, they agreed.

Looked Like Boner

Then Khrushchev pulled what looked like a huge boner. He shot back his acceptance fast, so fast he didn't have much time to think it over. By agreeing to meet in the Security Council he was ignoring two facts which he later pointed out angrily when he flatly refused to meet in the council: 1. That the 11-nation Council is loaded with American friends. On any matter except one of major importance—when the Soviet Union could use a veto—the Soviets figured to be overwhelmingly outvoted, if there was a vote.

2. By sitting down in the Council—where Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist China is a permanent member—he might seem to be agreeing that Chiang had a rightful place there.

Deadly Damage Done

Red China, excluded from U.N. membership mainly by American influence, claims it should be on the Council and that Chiang is an impostor. So Red China couldn't help being disturbed by Khrushchev's sitting in the Council.

By this time deadly damage had been done anyway. For the letters from Khrushchev to Eisenhower and the Eisenhower letters to Khrushchev were full of accusations, charges and counter-charges.

In brief, Khrushchev kept accusing this country of direct aggression in the Middle East; this country accused the Soviet Union of indirect aggression.

Two Things Happened
But when Eisenhower subsequently began laying down conditions for any meeting in the U.N.—that it had to be according to rules and preceded by agreements—Khrushchev apparently had second thoughts and said he wanted none of it.

Meanwhile, two things happened: 1. Last Thursday Dulles at a news conference made clear this country was not going to a summit meeting with any broad Middle East program but with only two main purposes in mind: to deny Soviet charges of American aggression and to accuse the Soviets

RODEO FEATURE TOPS CARLISLE FAIR PROGRAM

The 14th annual Carlisle Fair, which will be held from Monday through Saturday, will offer many new attractions this year topped by a spectacular wild west rodeo show to be presented on Monday and Tuesday nights, starting at 8 o'clock. The show will feature some of the outstanding rodeo acts on the nation's fair circuit.

The annual "Miss Carlisle Fair" beauty pageant, featuring more than 30 attractive young girls from all sections of Cumberland County, will be held on Wednesday night with cash prizes going to the first four winners.

Madam Brando, recognized as one of the world's outstanding hypnotists, will be the feature attraction on Thursday's night's program and a 26-event automobile daredevil show will be the main attraction for Friday night.

Animal Show

A wild animal show will feature Saturday afternoon's performance and the show will be repeated at 8 o'clock Saturday night as the climax to what is expected to be the biggest Carlisle Fair in history.

The afternoon entertainment on Tuesday through Friday, starting at 1:30 o'clock, will bring together more than 100 outstanding harness race horses from New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia and Pennsylvania.

Agricultural judging by members of the Pennsylvania State Extension Association at University Park, will begin on Tuesday and continue through Friday.

The huge, improved midway will feature Prell's Greater Broadway Shows, the fifth year in a row that the Carlisle Fair Association has retained Prell's entertainment.

Territorial flower of Alaska is the "forget-me-not"

of indirect aggression. With this revelation it became clear any meeting under those conditions would be a shouting match.

Door To New Arguments

2. Khrushchev flew to Red China where his allies must have been disturbed about the thought of his sitting down in the Council with Nationalist China. So yesterday he fired off a blast:

He wanted no part of a summit meeting in a Security Council loaded with American friends and no part of sitting down with Chiang Kai-shek or his representative.

Instead, he proposed the whole Middle East problem be turned over to the 81 nations in the General Assembly. Eisenhower quickly agreed. This opened the door to new arguments about what the Assembly would discuss.

SUSQUEHANNA IS LAST POLLUTION PROBLEM IN PA.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Sanitary Water Board today listed the Susquehanna River as the last major pollution problem in the Commonwealth.

But Health Secretary Charles L. Wilbar Jr., board chairman, emphasized that "substantial progress" was being made on this stream, the largest in Pennsylvania.

"We have our problems here and there on the Susquehanna River but we hope that over the years they will be solved," Dr. Wilbar told a newsman. "There are now long stretches of this river that are free of pollution."

A board spokesman said more than 35 million dollars has been spent by some 90 municipalities and scores of industries in the Susquehanna River watershed on sewage treatment plants and other antipollution measures.

But the cleanup project on the Susquehanna is still at less than the halfway mark because of two major roadblocks listed by the board:

1. No way has been found to neutralize economically the acid mine water from abandoned soft coal mines on the west branch of the river, principally in the Clearfield area.

2. Wilkes-Barre and several surrounding communities have objected to constructing sewage treatment plants on the claim such construction is not possible because of recurring mine subsidence. The board is seeking in Dauphin County Court to force such construction.

The cluster of communities in the Wilkes-Barre area forms the last big holdout in the Susquehanna clean streams program. Harrisburg, previously a recalcitrant, is now embarked on a seven-million-dollar project.

The board said the Susquehanna River, for the 200 miles between Lock Haven and the Maryland state line, is virtually free of major pollution elements.

Projects completed at Bloomsburg and Danville on the north branch of the river from Northumberland to Berwick also have helped that section of the stream. Berwick is in the middle of building a sewage treatment plant at the cost of 1½ million dollars.

The board also has its eye on Scranton and other Lackawanna County communities which dump sewage into the Susquehanna-bound waters of the Lackawanna and Lackawanna Rivers. But it has issued no cleanup orders pending a future study on acid water pollution from abandoned hard coal mines.

The same situation exists for such communities as Shamokin, Mount Carmel, Ashland, Girardville and Shenandoah in the lower anthracite region where Mahanoy and Mahanoy Creeks receive sewage that eventually wind up in the Susquehanna.

Some of the resistance to the clean streams program—it stems back to 1937—melted after the 1953 Legislature authorized state aid of up to 2 per cent a year of the cost of sewage treatment plants.

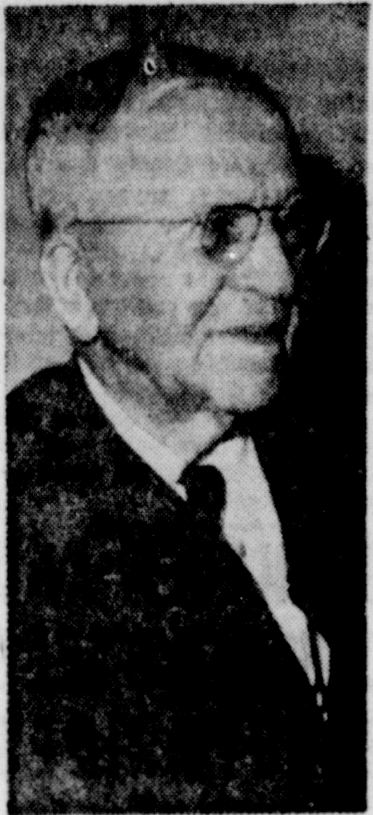

FARM PRICES DIP SLIGHTLY

HARRISBURG (AP)—A one-point decrease in the index of prices received by Pennsylvania farmers for all their products occurred between June 15 and July 15, the State Agriculture Department reported today.

A Pennsylvania Crop Reporting Service survey showed, however, that the index was eight points above the corresponding period of last year. While the index for livestock and livestock products rose three points, the crop index dipped 12 points from the previous month.

Lower prices for wheat, corn, oats, barley, rye, soybeans and hay were responsible for the crop index drop, reflecting large supplies of new crop grains. On the other hand, Pennsylvania farmers received higher prices for milk, cows, eggs and wholesale milk. The survey also showed the dairy products index advanced nine points from mid-June to mid-July. The average price received by farmers for wholesale milk was $4.60 per hundred pounds, 25 cents above the mid-June figure but five cents under July 1957.

Figures In Integration Appeal

Chief Justice Archibald K. Gardner, left, is head of the Eighth U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals hearing an appeal challenging the 2½-year postponement of racial integration at Little Rock High School. MANY DEFEND SCOUTMASTER WHO WAS FIRED

NEW LONDON, Conn. (AP)—A group of Boy Scouts and their mothers spoke up today in defense of Scoutmaster William N. Smith, banned by the Boy Scout organization.

Commented Lee Brown, blind 11 year old:

"I am proud to be a Scout, and it was only through the efforts of Mr. Smith that I am."

Lee said the stocky, muscular ex-infantry sergeant took him into Troop 27 after other troops had turned him down.

"A Great Guy"

"He's a great guy and I love to be with him and the troop," Lee said. "He even ordered some scout books in braille for me out of his own pocket."

Smith, a 35-year-old laundry operator, was banned for allegedly conducting camping trips and hikes without proper authorization and disregarding the boys' safety and health.

The World War II veteran, married and the father of a 10-year-old, denied the charges. He said each boy was given a stiffer-than-normal test and only the successful scouts were eligible to go. The trips included a four-day, 200 mile canoe trip on the Connecticut River and a trip to Mt. Washington in New Hampshire in subzero weather.

"God forbid," Smith said, "but if these boys ever have to take care of themselves, they will know how."

The regional council of the Boy Scouts scheduled a hearing for Sept. 8 on Smith's ouster.

Numerous protests came from the parents of the 35 members of the troop, and 14 of them gave Smith a vote of confidence Tuesday.

Things Are Better Around Harrisburg

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Bureau of Employment Security reported that things are better for workers in Dauphin, Cumberland and Lancaster counties than in any other area of the state.

The three-county region was the only rated labor market area which was not described as "substantial labor surplus" areas in the bureau's report Tuesday.

The report said only about 5 per cent of the labor force of the three counties was unemployed. About 25 per cent of the work force was unemployed in the Uniontown-Conneautville area of Fayette County.

HARRISBURG (AP)—A new state program providing separate inspection stations for house trailers was underway today with the start of the current semiannual inspection period for commercial vehicles.

O. D. Shipley, director of the State Bureau of Highway Safety, said the plan is designed to provide a better, more efficient check for house trailers in the interest of greater traffic safety.

FAMILY REUNION IS HELD SUNDAY

Ninety-five members and twelve guests attended the 13th annual reunion of the Blizzard, Murray, Lockner clan, held on Sunday at South Mountain fairgrounds. There was a basket lunch at noon and a business meeting and program in the afternoon. Mrs. William Shadle gave the invocation, and the program opened with a song, prayer by Kenneth Arter and remarks from the president, Bernard M. Selby, Littlestown. Reports were heard from Mrs. Mervin LeGore, secretary; Gary Strevg, acting treasurer; Mrs. William Shadle, historian; and George Eyer, York, who is compiling a history of the group, also spoke briefly. A moment of silent prayer was observed in memory of the deceased members of the family.

Ross Weaver and Gary Strevg were in charge of the program and the latter was piano accompanist. Mrs. Herbert Plunkert was song leader. The group sang two selections; there was a song by the men; song by Laurie Weaver; song by the women; vocal duet by Carol Ann Weaver and Mrs. Herbert Plunkert piano solo; Carol Ann Weaver; address by Dr. Joe Wong, a native of China, who is now a naturalized citizen and is doing research work in Washington, D. C.

Identify Burned Driver By Ring

TOMS RIVER, N.J. (AP)—Thomas Zawawski, 21, of 548 Edgemont Ave., Chester, Pa., burned to death Tuesday when his car caught fire after striking a utility pole on Route 9 about 15 miles south of here.

State police said Zawawski's speeding car went out of control, veered across the highway and plowed into the pole. Zawawski was thrown from the car. Power lines atop the pole snapped, showering the car and the victim with sparks which ignited Zawawski's clothing.

The body was burned beyond recognition when officers arrived. Identification was made by the victim's wife from a high school class ring.

Youth Read Koran Instead Of Bible

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Ellery F. Schemp, 18, quietly read the Koran in suburban Abington Township High School while his classmates participated in daily Bible recitations.

This, the boy said in federal court Tuesday, was his way of preserving his religious freedom in the face of a state law requiring Bible-reading in public schools.

His parents have brought a suit charging that the state law violates the U.S. Constitution.

Schemp, a Unitarian, said he bought a copy of the Koran, the sacred scripture of Islam, in his junior year and was allowed to read it at his desk. But in his senior year, he said he was told to listen to the Bible recitations.

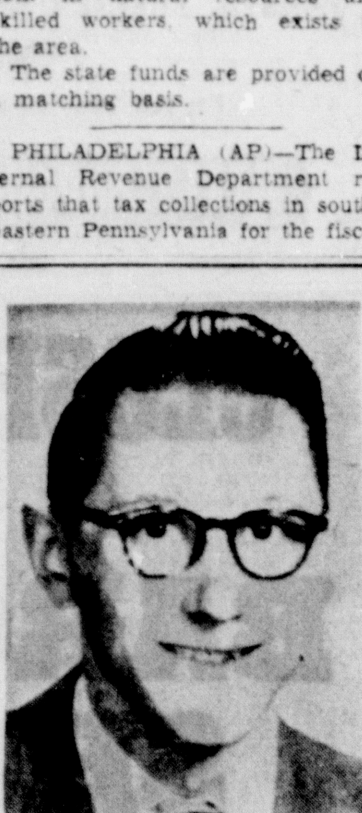

State Funds Go To Huntingdon County

HARRISBURG (AP)—The State Commerce Department today sent a $1.125 promotional grant to the Huntingdon County Industrial Development Council.

In approving the grant, Gov. Leader said the money would help the council make outside industrial capital aware of the rich potential, both in natural resources and skilled workers, which exists in the area.

The state funds are provided on a matching basis.

"When we started thinking about a new electric water heater," says Mr. Bernard Miller Jr., of R. L. Gettysburg, Pa., "I wondered just how it would affect our electric bill."

"Well," he continued, "we've had it for several months — and I couldn't be more pleased. The cost is surprisingly low, and the advantages are terrific. As far as I'm concerned, there just isn't any substitute for the safety, convenience and economy of an electric water heater."

The $2,193,000 project is expected to be under construction by September 1960, the agency said. The interest-free advance is repayable on start of construction.

ARMED FUGITIVE IS RECAPTURED

POTTSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—State police captured a 38-year-old escapee from the Pennhurst State School after a 30-minute chase through back yards and streets in nearby Linfield Tuesday.

The escapee, Harry Smith, was taken to Montgomery County Prison at Norristown to await transfer to a penal institution at Huntingdon. He had been at large since July 26.

Residents spotted Smith in a wooded area and called police. A five-man state police detail, five school attendants and some 30 townspeople chased him through streets and yards before he was nabbed by three troopers near a railroad station.

Officers said Smith threatened to kill himself during the chase and had inflicted a superficial wound on his chest with a paring knife he was carrying.

Earlier, Smith escaped after a brief struggle with a policeman in Royersford. A package Smith dropped in the scuffle contained a .38 caliber revolver and three bullets, officers reported.

Smith had been at Pennhurst, a school for the mentally retarded, for the past 27 years.

HOLD THE PHONE

GREAT FALLS, Mont. (AP)—Attorney Ted James of Great Falls made a 275-mile speech by telephone to the East Calgary, Alta., Kiwanis Club, part of the celebration of Canadian-American Friendship Week. There was one drawback, though. "I have no idea whether you're asleep, drowsy or absent," James told his audience.

Figures Defend Woman Drivers

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP)—The much-maligned woman driver finally has found a friend — a man. Said Floyd Webb of the Automobile Club of Michigan at a driver education institute at the University of Michigan:

"Two fifths of the nation's drivers are women and we have found they don't cause anywhere near the number of accidents that some of us men sputter about."

TRIES TO BLOCK WOMAN'S BAIL

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Dist. Atty. Bernard D. Joseph of Montgomery County has filed a motion asking the Pennsylvania Supreme Court to deny an appeal for bail to Mrs. Ethel Kravitz.

Mrs. Kravitz is accused of the murder of her husband, Max, 48, whose body was found in the bed room of their suburban Wynne wood home July 4. The prominent real estate dealer had been shot and beaten with the butt of the gun.

In his motion filed with the court prothonotary Tuesday D. Joseph said the law states that no appeal may be taken from refusal of a county court to grant a writ of habeas corpus on the grounds of insufficient evidence "prior to an indictment being found and the disposal of the case."

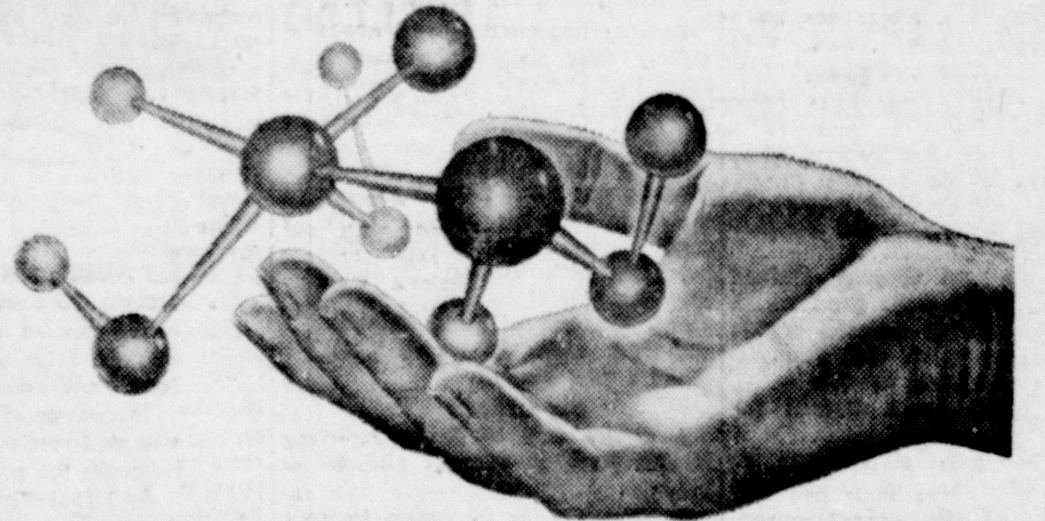

Mrs. Kravitz was denied freedom on bail by Montgomery County Judge David E. Groshens at a habeas corpus hearing July 24. Six days later she asked the state's high court to review the bail refusal.

Judge Groshens ruled that the state had established a prima facie murder case against Mrs. Kravitz.

A bounty of $3 is paid for a fox killed in New Jersey.

City Council Tuesday by her attorney Greg Bautzer.

The Desert Inn Hotel — one of the landmarks of this desert resort — would be rebuilt in the hills directly behind the present site.

Gamal Abdel Nasser Has His Headaches Too; AP Scribe Sees Shoals Ahead For UAR Prexy

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

Gamal Abdel Nasser has headaches, too.

The Arab East's noisy turmoil gives the impression that the United Arab Republic President is riding the crest of an all-engulfing wave. But there are shoals ahead.

In the bustling northern cities of what was Nasser's Syrian province there was dancing in the streets at the news of the July 14 coup in Iraq.

Not All Pleasing

Did that please Nasser? Not altogether. In his July 23 Cairo speech Nasser went out of his way to be sharply critical of northern Syria.

Here was the rub: The Iraqi coup was a revolution by nationalists — perhaps even extreme nationalists. But was it wholly a Nasser revolution? The man who led it, Brig. Gen. Abdul Karim Kassem, by his own account had plotted revolt against Premier Nuri Said's rule ever since 1934, 18 years before he ever heard of Nasser. Those who supported the revolt owed Nasser little if anything for its success. Indeed, its suddenness seemed to have caught Nasser by surprise.

Some Misgivings

Naturally Nasser pictured the Iraqi revolt as a personal triumph. Yet he must have had some serious misgivings about the future.

Many Syrians, after passionately pursuing total union with Egypt, suddenly found themselves restive under Nasser's rule. There had been well founded reports of anti-Nasser manifestations in northern Syria, whose practical businessmen chafed at what they considered the U.A.R.'s economic madness.

The northern Syrians showed only that they were pro-Iraq. A cherished dream seemed within their grasp: union with Iraq.

Could Mean Trouble

This could mean trouble for Nasser.

Iraq has great oil and mineral wealth. She has an oil-financed economic development program well under way. Syria's economy remains sound. Politically Syria is far more sophisticated than Egypt. And Egypt has little but Nasser.

Syria and Iraq together in the U.A.R. surely would overbalance the Egyptians and eventually dominate the union.

What does this mean to the West? For one thing, it offers some assurance that, barring grotesque Western blunders, oil will continue flowing from the Persian gulf and through Iraq Petroleum Co. pipelines. There are good reasons for expecting this.

Wants Oil Revenues

The Iraqis will continue to want the Western foreign exchange from their oil production. They are aware, too, that Western Europe can do without Iraqi oil if necessary, so long as Kuwait's vast production potential is available. So nationalization of Iraq's oil producing facilities might prove a boomerang.

But one of Nasser's major goals has been to get his hands on some of the oil revenues from the "have-not" countries for the benefit of "have-not" Egypt. How does he hasten this without bringing Iraq into the U. A. R. and endangering Egypt's pre-eminence in the union?

Nasser has other troubles too. The momentum his movement gained by events of the past three months will be lost if he stands still now. But can he afford another major explosion under his auspices?

Enemies At Home

Nasser has enemies in his own country. He is less popular with Egypt's literate population than he is outside. Egypt's economy is in a sorry mess which has required her to pay a bonus on the Egyptian pound in foreign transactions. On the political side, many of Nasser's own supporters fear communism and dread further involvement with the Soviet bloc.

Equally important, many Arabs clearly were shocked by realization that recent events could make the Middle East the cockpit of World War III.

Nasser can ill afford new explosions now. But neither can he afford to halt his violent propaganda, even now pouring into psychotic little Jordan. Probably only the arrival of British troops saved the life of King Hussein, and their departure surely would mean a new blowoff.

Big Dangers

A Soviet aim is to keep the Middle East in turmoil and off balance.

If Nasser tries to profit from Soviet aims, he may build up forces which eventually will destroy him. If he does not attempt to profit from Soviet purposes, he risks losing the momentum he has created and the support of the more impatient nationalists of Jordan and the Saudi peninsula.

Nasser's dilemmas may point a course. Western diplomacy could attempt to understand the paradoxes of the Arab East. It could seize the opportunity to give the more moderate nationalists something tangible to grasp in the way of support for their reasonable aspirations.

The POWER of FAITH

By Howard Brodie

Christ's Early Ministry—3

GALILEE, ISRAEL—After John the Baptist went to prison, Jesus went to the country around the Lake of Galilee to preach the gospel of the kingdom of God. His was a lonely mission until one day, walking along the shore, He saw two fishermen, the brothers Peter and Andrew, casting their nets into the sea. "Follow Me," He exhorted, "and I will make you fishers of men."

The power of His love was so great that straight off they followed Him, dropping their nets and receiving faith to inspire new friends and followers. Today the lovely lake still bespeaks the presence of the greatest of all fishermen.

As I recently walked its shores, fish leaped and flashed over the deep blue water. A long legged bird stood majestically on a rock. Flotsam of feathers, fronds, pine cones and orange peels bobbed on the gentle water. And, like those first apostles, fishermen stood casting their nets into the sea.

PUBLICATIONS GREAT HELP IN PA. HOSPITALS

By BOB HOLTON
HARRISBURG (AP)—The woman described her experience in 18 dramatic words:

"A past that is dead and a future that has not yet drawn the first breath of life."

She is a patient at a state mental hospital and she was writing about her feelings from the time she first became ill to the day she was declared on the road to recovery.

Her cryptic account of hospital life appeared in one of the periodic newspapers and leaflets published by patients in Pennsylvania's 17 mental institutions.

Speeds Recovery

"There is no getting away from it, working on these publications has been responsible for speeding up the recovery of many of our patients," said Dr. John Davis, commissioner of mental health.

"It is a very good form of mental therapy. It stimulates good feeling among the patients and the staff and provides many with an outlet," he explained.

Publications are also produced by youngsters in the Commonwealth's 4 institutions for mentally retarded children.

"I take care of the plants in my room. I water them every day," wrote one youngster.

Write Of Fears

Another proudly boasted: "We study the map and learn many things about the United States. We know how many there are and try to learn something about each state."

The adults often write about their fears. Wrote one:

"To a person about to be discharged from a mental hospital, the world outside can look very frightening and unfriendly."

Expressions of hope and confidence are numerous:

"To me, our (hospital) unit means the bridge and we hope also to make it the gateway. It is a bridge between the past and the future. The past that is gone and the future that is not yet here."

The publications are sprinkled

BEDFORD, Pa. (AP) — Picture taking and electronic recording of trial proceedings have been banned in Bedford County Court by Judge Richard C. Snyder.

In a directive disclosed Tuesday, Judge Snyder barred the taking of pictures at any point within 40 feet of any courtroom door.

The taking of pictures of jurors inside or outside of the courtroom also is prohibited.

Judge Snyder also ordered that prisoners on trial being taken to or from the county jail could not be photographed.

BETHLEHEM AND CRUCIBLE STEEL BOOST PRICES

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Bethlehem Steel Corp. and Crucible Steel Co. today increased prices on certain products in the third phase of a price pattern established last week.

Bethlehem, the nation's second largest producer, boosted by about 3 1/4 per cent the prices of hot rolled plates, structural shapes and sheet piling used in ships and railroad cars.

Crucible hiked prices on high speed and tool steels from 2 to 5 per cent.

The increases leave only tinplate and stainless steel prices unchanged in the big tonnage classes.

Armco First

Armco Steel Corp. acted first in increasing prices of flat rolled products. Republic Steel Corp. set the pattern on bars, rods, wire and tubular products. In both cases, the rest of the industry followed suit.

The price of steel has been raised an estimated $4.50 a ton by the three selective boosts. The former composite price of steel products was about $155 a ton.

An automatic wage increase was granted steelworkers July 1 which, according to steel company officials, increased their payroll costs by about 20 cents an hour and added $4 to $11 to the cost of producing a ton of steel.

In Washington, Asst. Atty. Gen. Victor R. Hanson says he is giving very serious consideration to whether a grand jury should be set up to investigate the latest steel price increases.

RAINS DELAY PA. HARVEST

HARRISBURG (AP)—Continued rain and wet weather has delayed the harvest of most grain crops and caused some damage, but vegetable and fruit crops were reported in good shape.

The State Agriculture Department reported in its weekly crop summary Tuesday that wet, humid weather kept farmers from making second cuttings of hay.

Hay generally has been reduced in quality by rains over the past month, the department said, and the grain harvest is late in all sections.

The department's crop report for the week ended Monday said: "Rainfall for the week exceeded two inches in much of the west and central sections of the state as showers and thunderstorms occurred almost daily in all areas except the northeast where rains were confined to the first half of the week."

JAYCEES WILL HOLD ANNUAL FAMILY PICNIC

An incomplete report on the recent music festival, sponsored by the Littlestown Junior Chamber of Commerce, was given by the festival chairman, William R. Keefe, at the semi-monthly dinner meeting of the local Jaycee chapter, Monday evening at Schottie's. President Clyde W. Crouse was in charge of the meeting and appointed a committee to arrange for the annual family picnic.

The committee consists of Walter Rentzel, chairman, John P. Feser Jr. and Russ Abbott. The affair will be held the evening of Monday, August 18, at Crouse's Pool, along the Taneytown Rd. near town, beginning at 6:30 p.m. A brief business meeting is scheduled in conjunction with the family gathering. Clyde Bucher also presented a report at the session. A meeting of the Jaycee directors will be held on Monday, August 11, at 8 p.m., at Schottie's.

Methodists Meet
Members of the official board of the Centenary Methodist Church met on Monday evening at the church. Among the items of business on the agenda was the choosing of a monthly meeting night. The fourth Wednesday of each month was designated for regular meetings. The Rev. William R. Jones is pastor.

The crowd on Tuesday night on the carnival grounds was comparable to the large one in attendance at the opening night on Monday. Entertainment last evening was "The Tunes" who have a standing engagement each year during carnival week. Tonight Bobby Metzel and the Country Rhythm Boys will entertain and tomorrow night, the Oklahoma Travelers. Friday night is the big parade, scheduled to begin at 7 p.m. Also on the week's activities is a matinee for the children on Saturday afternoon.

Story Of Victim Of Union Torch Is "Falling Apart"

PONTIAC, Mich. (AP) — The sketchy story that Teamsters Business Agent Frank Kierdorf gave after he stumbled into a hospital, burned almost from head to foot, began falling apart today.

At the same time, police had a warrant for the arrest of Kierdorf's uncle, Herman Kierdorf, either a vengeance-bent hunter or the fear-shaken prey of an anonymous telephone threat.

Herman, a former Teamsters business agent, disappeared after swearing he would get even with the people who his nephew said set him afire and left him, pan-wracked and nearly naked, on a hospital lawn.

While the 56-year-old Frank clung to a thin strand of life in a police-guarded hospital room, Prosecutor Frederick Ziem said: "Had Prior Medication"

"The man had prior medication before he ever came to the hospital. Furthermore, there is no evidence to back up his statement that he rolled in the grass to put out the flames."

Ziem based his conclusions on the word of a pathologist, Dr. Richard E. Olsen, who said he found traces of a salve on Kierdorf's neck and face that was not administered at the hospital.

The new loopholes in Frank's story only piled higher the multitude of unanswered questions.

Both Frank and his uncle Herman are ex-convicts with Teamsters Union connections. Frank is business agent for the 2,000-member Teamsters Local 332 in near-

World Briefs

MEXICO CITY (AP)—The head of Mexico's railroads today predicted a prompt settlement of a wildcat strike punctuated by violence which has crippled the nation's communications.

Roberto Amoros made the prediction after Tuesday night meeting with President Adolfo Ruiz Cortines. Amoros earlier denied reports of an agreement with Demetrio Vallejo, the dissident labor leader who called the strike Saturday.

The walkout by more than 100,000 railway men has caused freight pileups throughout Mexico. Some shortages of food and fuels were developing. Amoros said some passenger service to the United States is being maintained.

Workers not sympathetic to the strike, some retired workers and executives were keeping trains running on the government-operated system. Some carried troops after a train was derailed, a bridge burned and several locomotives in Mexico City were put out of commission.

Vallejo is trying to pressure the government into recognizing him as chief of the railway union's executive committee.

MEXICO CITY (AP)—The head of Mexico's railroads today predicted a prompt settlement of a wildcat strike punctuated by violence which has crippled the nation's communications.

Roberto Amoros made the prediction after Tuesday night meeting with President Adolfo Ruiz Cortines. Amoros earlier denied reports of an agreement with Demetrio Vallejo, the dissident labor leader who called the strike Saturday.

The walkout by more than 100,000 railway men has caused freight pileups throughout Mexico. Some shortages of food and fuels were developing. Amoros said some passenger service to the United States is being maintained.

Workers not sympathetic to the strike, some retired workers and executives were keeping trains running on the government-operated system. Some carried troops after a train was derailed, a bridge burned and several locomotives in Mexico City were put out of commission.

Vallejo is trying to pressure the government into recognizing him as chief of the railway union's executive committee.

ROME (AP)—The Rome prosecutor today filed an appeal against the court ruling annulling the proxy marriage of Ingrid Bergman and Roberto Rossellini.

The prosecutor contended that the Rome district court had no jurisdiction or authority for its July 10 decision ending the marriage of the Swedish actress and the Italian film director.

Filing the appeal prevents the annulment decree from becoming final. There was no immediate indication how long it would take the higher court to rule on the objection.

NORTH SHIELDS, England (AP)—Four-year-old Ronnie Carr smoked a peace pipe for two minutes Tuesday. It almost became a pipe of death.

Ronnie was playing Indian at his home here. He put a rubber gas pipe in his mouth, turned on the gas, started puffing away and collapsed.

His father rushed him outside
